How to Reach Across the Curriculum and Still Homeschool Inexpensively

Type of Media To Use

Subject	Website/Software	DVD/Video/TV	Audio CD	Games/Activity/Field trips	Printed Materials
Math	Cool Math.com	Leap Frog Math Videos	Math Raps Audio Tapes and CD's	Tri-Ominoes, Pattern blocks, Look at architecture	Puzzle-Mania
Science	How Stuff Works.com	Bill Nye Science Series		Orlando Sci. Center, experiment, Gardening Game	Books with Science Experiments
History	History Channel.com	Liberty's Kids	Celebrating America CD's	Visit Museum of Science	Biographies of famous people
Geography	Where in the world is Carmen San Diego and like programs	National Geographic Society	Don't Know Much About Geography Audio Book	Visit parks, do map puzzles and look at globes,	Nation Geographic Society Magazine
Social Studies	World and I	TV and Videos about countries	Listen to music from other counties and cultures	Heritage Study, go to fairs and festivals	Time For Kids
Reading	Read Classics	Reading Rainbow	Audio Books	Phonics Game	Books, magazines
Handwriting	Typing Tutor Programs		Dictate a story	Calligraphy	Handwriting books and Donna Young
Creative Writing	Word Processor	Continue a story after seeing a movie		Story Starters Decorate paper Ghost Writer	How to Write
Grammar	Chomp Chomp	Schoolhouse Rock	Grammar Step by Step audio CD's	Mad Libs	Writing with Style Style manual
Spelling	Spell-It Deluxe	Put closed caption and Subtitles on TV	Electronic Spell Checker	Spell-it, hangman	Dictionary
Music	Listen to online radio	Watch an orchestra	Listen to Classical music	Go to a concert or a musical	Learn to read sheet music
Art	Publisher	What how-to videos		Go to an art museum or gallery	Look through art books
Foreign Language	Foreign Language program	Watch a movie you know in a different language	Listen to music in a different language or the language being studied	Take a class; study with a friend	Purchase books and magazines from other countries

Chomp, Chomp is a site where you can practice parts of speech, test your knowledge of grammar, make printables, and get tips.